Though modern-day Romans may be accustomed to the wealth of antiquity that surrounds them, you will gain a true appreciation on how this amazing city accommodates ancient and modern sites so seamlessly. Trace the steps of triumphant Roman generals toward the ancient ruins of the Forum. Stand where Cicero and Mark Antony eulogized the fallen Caesar. Sit on a marble slab in the Colosseum and imagine yourself a witness to gladiatorial combats. No visit to Rome is complete without seeing the Vatican. Stroll through St. Peter’s Square to marvel at the balustrade topped by 140 statues, one of Bernini’s many brilliant accomplishments. Gaze at the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel, where Michelangelo spent four years painting a masterpiece of biblical figures, architectural illusions and iconic glorifications of the human body. Before you leave, toss a coin into the Trevi Fountain to ensure your return to Rome!

Travel Insurance
Smithsonian Journeys’ optional Traveler’s Protection Plan helps ease your worries. If unexpected circumstances should arise and you must cancel or interrupt your trip, our plan covers your investment. For the convenience of our travelers, Smithsonian Journeys makes available a Traveler’s Protection Plan Travel Insurance. We strongly urge you to consider this or other travel insurance in addition to your own health insurance policy and the coverage for emergency evacuation, medical, and dental expenses, and worldwide emergency assistance service included in the price of your tour. Details of our plan will be sent with your confirmation letter. The plan provides help in many unexpected circumstances, such as loss, delay, or damage of baggage; a medical problem that may suddenly arise which causes you to cancel your trip; and medical costs outside the U.S. (most medical policies, including Medicare, do not provide full coverage for medical expenses incurred outside of the U.S.)

Air Tickets Purchased Independently of the Tour
We urge you to check airline cancellation penalties before purchasing airline tickets since international departure times and flights can change. Tours also can be cancelled due to low enrollments. Neither Smithsonian Institution nor the tour operator accepts liability for cancellation penalties related to domestic or international airline tickets purchased independently in conjunction with a tour.

Itinerary Changes
Smithsonian strives to improve tour itineraries and their features. If improvements can be made, or unforeseen circumstances beyond our control make changes necessary, we reserve the right to vary itineraries and to substitute hotels. Every effort will be made to carry out the program as planned but alterations may still occur after the final itineraries are sent. Please note that weather conditions may force changes to the advertised sailing schedule on cruise programs. The ship’s captain has the authority to change the ship’s schedule.

Physical and Medical Considerations
Please note that these tours require that participants be in good physical condition; you must be capable, without assistance, of walking a minimum of one mile over uneven terrain and of climbing stairs that may not have handrails. Participants should have sufficient stamina to keep pace with an active group of travelers on long days of touring. If you have any questions about your ability to participate in a tour, please call us at 1-877-338-8877.

Children
All tours, except for family programs, are designed for adults. Some may be suitable for older children. Regardless of age children must pay full price unless otherwise noted, and a parent or guardian must accompany those under 18.

Photography
Participants on tour may be photographed for the educational and promotional purposes of the Smithsonian Institution. Photographs may be printed in publications and posted on websites to promote Smithsonian Journeys. Travelers who prefer that their image not be used must advise the tour manager at the beginning of the tour.

Smoking Policy
For the comfort of all participants, we ask that there be no smoking during all group activities, including excursions and meals.

Note About Costs
Tour costs are based upon current airfares, tariffs, currency values, and on the basis of a minimum number of participants. While we will do everything possible to maintain the listed prices, they are subject to change. Should actual enrollments fall significantly below minimum numbers, a surcharge may be added. Due to fluctuations in oil prices, a fuel surcharge may be added to your tour fee (e.g. internal flights, cruises, etc.). Details and costs will be advised prior to departure.
